

FREN/GERM 4150

FRENCH/GERMAN TEACHER CERTIFICATION

- FREN/GERM 4150 is required for French/German Teacher Certification candidates.
- The certification category is all-level (EC-12) certification.
- Admission to the Teacher Certification program is managed by the College of Education.
- This program requires a major in French or German and specific courses in Education.

French: http://catalog.unt.edu/preview_program.php?catoid=13&poid=3750&returnto=989

German: http://catalog.unt.edu/preview_program.php?catoid=13&poid=3751&returnto=989

MAJOR IN FRENCH/GERMAN

- FREN/GERM 4150 counts toward a major in French or German.

MINOR IN FRENCH/GERMAN/SPANISH

- Effective Fall 2016 (2016-2017 Undergraduate Catalog and forward), FREN/GERM 4150 will not count toward a minor in French, German, or Spanish.

SCHEDULING & ENROLLMENT

- FREN/GERM 4150 will be offered every spring semester, provided that the minimum level of enrollment is reached.
- In order to enroll in FREN/GERM 4150, you must contact the Undergraduate Advisor for the Department of World Languages, Literatures, and Cultures.
- Approval to enroll in FREN/GERM 4150 is guaranteed for students who have been admitted to the French/German Teacher Certification program by the College of Education, provided that space is available. Students who have applied but not yet been accepted will also be given permission to enroll, provided that space is available.
- Approval to enroll in FREN/GERM 4150 is not guaranteed for all other students.

ALTERNATIVE ROUTE TO CERTIFICATION

- The state of Texas has approved several Alternative Certification Programs. Although FREN/GERM 4150 is not required for any of these programs, taking 4150 can be a way to help you decide whether or not foreign language teaching is a career path that you might like to pursue.

Texas Education Agency: <http://tea.texas.gov/index2.aspx?id=7073>

UNDERGRADUATE ADVISOR FOR THE DEPARTMENT OF WORLD LANGUAGES, LITERATURES, AND CULTURES

Laetitia Knight

<https://worldlanguages.unt.edu/undergraduate-programs/undergraduate-advising>

940-565-2404

Laetitia.Knight@unt.edu